: The ISWI Website

Dear ISWI Participant:

Reading this text means that you are likely to be a subscriber to the "ISWI Newsletter." However, another important news & info component of ISWI is the "ISWI Website", which has been managed by Mitko (Bulgarian Academy of Sciences) since the year 2009.

It is this: <http://www.iswi-secretariat.org/>

Last year, at the "UN/Ecuador Workshop on ISWI", Mitko delivered an oral presentation describing his website and my newsletter. I attach the first five pages of it to this email as pdf.

Mitko and I wish to encourage you to use both ISWI resources: his website and my newsletter. Specifically, please submit info that will be of interest to the ever-expanding ISWI community. Such info dissemination will benefit yourself and the International Space Weather Initiative. It is a win-win situation.

Finally, my newsletter is fully archived at Mitko's website. Every single issue is in the newsletter archive. I am grateful to Mitko for faithfully providing this important service, year in and year out.

Cordially and most humbly yours,
. George Maeda
. The Editor
