: Videos at the ISWI website:
: Two samples.

Dear ISWI Participant:

I am happy to say that many ISWI-related videos are now available at the ISWI website (www.iswi-secretariat.org) . Many thanks to Mitko of Bulgaria who maintains this website for the entire ISWI community. He is doing a great job for all of us.

I attach two samples. These samples are not directly videos but instead show you how to view the videos. The first sample concerns the videos presented at UN/Nigeria Workshop on ISWI.

The second sample was explained in the newsletter that I sent out yesterday -- short video on the ISWI Summer School in Slovakia last year. The video is now available at the ISWI website.

All these videos mentioned above are quite good in my opinion.

In your humble service,
: George Maeda
